

In Memory of
C. Cynthia Wilson

In her capacity as head of the office of statistical coordination and liaison with federal agencies having major statistical programs for the NYS Division of the Budget, Cynthia was integral to the founding of the New York State Statistical Yearbook in 1967. After her retirement from the Division of the Budget, she served as a consultant to The Nelson A. Rockefeller Institute of Government for the Yearbook, which the Institute produced in cooperation with the Division of the Budget beginning in 1983.
